

5 Hanover–Plymouth Church 37.4-28.3 miles 930'-743' Flat to Rolling Hills-Flat to Hilly

Hanover

This route leaves Beloit from the south and continues for a few flat miles before getting to Paddock Rd where there is a gradual incline. Once Paddock Rd ends, this route continues into rolling hills for about four miles until it reaches a flat section on Johnson Rd. Once on the flat section there is the Kessler Railroad Prairie State Natural Area Trail which is a beautiful site to see and a good place for a possible rest.

Once past this area, you will come to Hanover where you will turn shortly before The Ding-A-Ling, a popular local supper club. As you continue south on South Schuman Rd, keep an eye out on the right for The Earth Home, which you will see at the end of a quarry. As you ascend on Kettle Rd, the route will begin to get hilly, especially once on Johnson Rd. However, once you are back on Paddock Rd the route will be especially fun as it is mostly downhill.

Plymouth Church

This route leaves Beloit headed south and continues for a few flat miles before getting to Paddock Rd. At this point the route gets hilly with several vistas on Paddock Rd, Plymouth Church Rd; there is a very steep half mile climb on Johnson Rd, and Smythe School Rd. Once Smythe School Rd crosses Cleophas Rd it is mostly downhill all the way back. This is a great hill training ride.
