

11 Stone Bridge Trail 20.9 miles 357' Flat

The Stone Bridge Trail runs for 6 miles along an old railway bed through Roscoe, Illinois and then becomes the Long Prairie Trail. Getting to the trail from Beloit requires some urban riding utilizing the Dorr Rd trail in South Beloit and the Hononegah trail in Rockton and Roscoe. The trail is mostly shaded by surrounding woodland, and it crosses roads every one or two miles, so use caution when approaching crossings. The Long Prairie Trail extension goes through Caledonia, Poplar Grove and Capron. There are restaurants in the towns, with an ice cream shop in Poplar Grove.
